Attorneys for Plaintiff, Andrew P. Napolitano

ANDREW P. NAPOLITANO,

Plaintiff,

v.

CHARLES CORBISHLEY,

Defendant.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY
CIVIL ACTION NO.

Civil Action

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Andrew P. Napolitano (“Former Judge Napolitano”), by way of Complaint against Defendant Charles Corbishley (“Defendant”), alleges and states as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Former Judge Andrew P. Napolitano files this action to vindicate his good name after Defendant executed his extortionate scheme and defamatory smear campaign to damage permanently Former Judge Napolitano’s reputation with fabricated and baseless accusations of sexual misconduct that supposedly occurred more than thirty years in the past.

2. Defendant is a convicted felon with a criminal record that spans three decades. Although he made a run-of-the-mill appearance in Judge Napolitano's court in the late 1980s as a defendant in a criminal proceeding, Defendant has now concocted a false story that his then-criminal lawyer (now conveniently deceased) supposedly set up an arrangement whereby Defendant received lenient treatment from Former Judge Napolitano in exchange for a sexual favor. Nothing could be further from the truth.

3. Former Judge Napolitano has never had any private, ex parte meeting with Defendant; further, he never engaged in any sort of sexual contact with Defendant, and Former Judge Napolitano never made any agreement – or otherwise had any communications – to impose a lesser sentence for Defendant in exchange for any favor or services. Former Judge Napolitano certainly never committed the sexual assault Defendant falsely contends transpired decades ago.

4. On September 11, 2020, after a failed months long campaign to extort a settlement, Defendant filed a lawsuit against Former Judge Napolitano setting forth his fabricated sexual assault story in graphic detail and demanding $10 million. Defendant filed his sham lawsuit in an entirely improper venue, the Southern District of New York, in which none of the alleged events are purported to have transpired and in which neither Defendant nor Former Judge Napolitano reside. Presumably, Defendant chose this improper venue – the nation's largest media market – to maximize the exposure his lawsuit would receive.

5. Even though he knew the accusations were demonstrably false, Defendant, both directly and through his attorneys, repeated his fabricated claims by publicizing the scandalous and false sexual assault allegations to numerous media outlets in an attempt to garner publicity for himself and his suit to coerce and oppress Former Judge Napolitano in furtherance of his extortionate scheme. At the same time, Defendant repeated his false story on multiple occasions, both before and after the filing of suit, to third parties, including New Jersey residents.

6. Former Judge Napolitano brings this action in the correct venue to set the record straight, to vindicate his rights under civil law, to restore his reputation as a distinguished jurist, and to establish Defendant's liability for the harm that his false and defamatory statements have caused. Former Judge Napolitano seeks an award of compensatory damages for the reputational and economic harm caused by Defendant's false accusations and, given the willful and malicious nature of Defendant's conduct in knowingly publishing defamatory falsehoods about him, Former Judge Napolitano also seeks an award of punitive damages.

PARTIES

7. Former Judge Napolitano is a resident of, and is domiciled in, Sussex County, New Jersey. Former Judge Napolitano previously served as a judge for the Superior Court of New Jersey in Bergen County, New Jersey.

8. Defendant is a resident of South Carolina.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332 because Plaintiff is a citizen of the State of New Jersey, Defendant is a citizen of another state, and the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000.

10. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims asserted allegedly occurred in this District. In fact, the entirety of Defendant's concocted story purportedly took place in Bergen County, New Jersey.

11. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because Defendant expressly aimed and purposefully directed his defamatory statements – which are based on conduct that supposedly took place in Bergen County, New Jersey – at Former Judge Napolitano, a New Jersey resident, knowing that the brunt of the injury would be felt in New Jersey. Among other affirmative acts, Defendant launched his campaign of extortion and defamation by sending a demand letter and proposed verified complaint, intended for filing in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Bergen County, to Former Judge Napolitano at his New Jersey residence.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

12. Defendant’s campaign against Former Judge Napolitano is almost a year in the making. Long before filing suit against Former Judge Napolitano, Defendant hired his attorneys and agents, Jon Norinsberg and Bennitta Joseph, to serve as his legal counsel through the law firm of Joseph & Norinsberg, LLC.

13. Even though Defendant knew that his accusations were completely false, and that Former Judge Napolitano had never acted improperly towards him, he set out to extort the Former Judge by threatening to publicize this fabulist account of sexual misconduct.

14. Defendant directed his agents and lawyers to send an extortionate demand letter to Former Judge Napolitano on December 2, 2019. This letter included a draft verified complaint asserting false accusations of sexual misconduct and corruption against Former Judge Napolitano. The verified complaint even went so far as to falsely insinuate that Defendant was a juvenile at the time of the alleged incident, even though available public records clearly demonstrate that Defendant was a twenty (20) year-old man when he appeared in Court before then-Judge Napolitano. That extortion demand and verified Complaint (the “Original Complaint”) are attached as Exhibit 1 and incorporated herein by reference.

15. After receiving Defendant’s extortion demand, Former Judge Napolitano retained counsel who sent a letter to Defendant’s counsel on January 16, 2020, demanding that Defendant retract his defamatory statements. The January 16, 2020 letter is attached as Exhibit 2 and incorporated herein by reference. The January 16, 2020 letter provided documentary evidence that confirmed the impossibility of Defendant's fabricated claims.

16. One of those pieces of evidence was the fact that at the time Defendant claims his fabricated tale occurred, Former Judge Napolitano did not live in a "house" with a "driveway" that could have been shoveled, and there was no "out back" where the alleged assault could have occurred. Former Judge Napolitano lived on the 26th floor of a condominium building in Hackensack, New Jersey.

17. Incredibly, even though Defendant, who resided in Hackensack, New Jersey at all times relevant to the fabricated allegations, could not identify the address of the home, or even the street, on which this incident that has left him so scarred purportedly occurred, Defendant did not abandon his extortionate scheme and retract his defamatory statements.

18. Instead, Defendant chose to recklessly disregard the contents of January 16, 2020 letter and refused to withdraw the Complaint. Defendant pivoted to a new allegation that the act occurred at an unidentified home in Hackensack, New Jersey that was "owned/leased/rented and/or borrowed" by Former Judge Napolitano.

19. After Former Judge Napolitano refused to succumb to his extortionate scheme, throughout the Spring of 2020 Defendant contacted his former associates, including two New Jersey residents, and recounted the fabricated tale to them – a story Defendant had conspicuously never mentioned in over thirty (30) years.

20. On September 11, 2020, Defendant filed a baseless lawsuit alleging that he had been sexually abused by Former Judge Napolitano. See Charles Corbishley v. Andrew Napolitano, Case No. 1:20-cv-07445 (Sep. 11, 2020 S.D.N.Y.). That lawsuit was improperly filed in the Southern District of New York based on a false allegation that Former Judge Napolitano resides in the City, County and State of New York.¹

21. Defendant was forced to make even more substantive changes to his accusations in the complaint he ultimately filed in order to continue his scheme. In its latest iteration, the current complaint changes the alleged location of the supposed sexual assault from Former Judge Napolitano's residence to a home that was "owned/leased/rented and/or borrowed" by Former Judge Napolitano "and/or Robert Hollis [Defendant's deceased criminal defense lawyer], so as to arrange for a clandestine location where Napolitano could meet privately with Corbishley."

22. In the Original Complaint, Defendant claimed that his attorney arranged the "private, ex parte, meeting with Former Judge Napolitano at "the Napolitano residence," and that he went to Former Judge Napolitano's "house," where he was asked to "go out back" to "shovel the driveway." Defendant claimed this "out back" was where the assault took place.

23. Thus, even though Defendant has had actual knowledge that his claims were pure fiction, and was put on further written notice of that claim-defeating fact and supporting documentary evidence, Defendant doubled down on his false accusations and filed a sham lawsuit to inflict further damage to Former Judge Napolitano's reputation.

24. To be clear, Defendant transmitted the Original Complaint and subsequently filed his sham-pleading in the Southern District of New York in bad faith and for improper purposes. Specifically, his false complaints were intended to harass, coerce and oppress Former Judge Napolitano, cause malicious injury, damage his reputation, and extort him into paying millions in "hush money" demanded by Defendant. Former Judge Napolitano refuses to be extorted.

25. The claims set forth in Defendant's Original Complaint and his sham-pleading

¹ Contemporaneously with the filing of this action, Former Judge Napolitano will file a motion in that action to transfer venue to this District, where it should have been filed in the first instance given that all of the events alleged in that action purportedly occurred in this District and Former Judge Napolitano resides in this District.

Southern District of New York Complaint are objectively meritless, completely baseless as a matter of law, and Defendant has no reasonable expectation, whatsoever, that he will secure favorable relief through the judicial process for claims he knows to be false. Instead, he is simply seeking to use fear of public ridicule, coercion and oppression to extort Former Judge Napolitano.

26. Both before and after filing suit against Former Judge Napolitano, in September of 2020, Defendant, through his agents and lawyers, repeated the incendiary accusations in coordinated press releases and related statements to journalists and the public in an unashamed attempt to try his case in the court of public opinion before Former Judge Napolitano even had a chance to use the judicial process to vindicate his rights. Such actions represented a malicious abuse of process in so far as Defendant used his sham-pleading, and the legal process, to further his extortionate efforts and media campaign.

27. Defendant knew that these were false statements but nonetheless published them to obtain publicity and leverage and cause even more irreparable harm to Former Judge Napolitano's reputation.

28. By filing his false claims against Former Judge Napolitano and publicizing the allegations he fabricated, Defendant, through his agents and lawyers, swiftly mobilized a media firestorm against Former Judge Napolitano. Hundreds of thousands of individuals read the false allegations and this caused irreparable damage to Former Judge Napolitano's reputation.

29. Defendant knew his smear campaign and extortion scheme against Former Judge Napolitano was completely baseless, but he intentionally disregarded the truth to continue in his attempt to coerce Former Judge Napolitano into paying him to go away.

COUNT ONE
(Defamation – per se)

30. Former Judge Napolitano repeats and realleges the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs as if stated fully herein.

31. Defendant published defamatory statements of fact of and concerning Former Judge Napolitano, including but not limited to false accusations that Former Judge Napolitano had:

- Conspired with “Hollis, so as to arrange for a clandestine location” for the purpose of “sexually assaulting, sexually abusing, and/or having sexual contact” with Defendant.
- “[F]orced [Defendant] to perform fellatio.”
- “[F]orcibly sodomiz[ed] [Defendant].”
- “[I]mpose[d] a lighter sentence on [Defendant]” and showed “improper preferential treatment toward” Defendant because Judge Napolitano “was attempting to create goodwill with [Defendant], and thereby ensure that [Defendant] would remain silent about Napolitano’s sexual assault of him.”
- “[R]ecently reached out to law enforcement authorities and made completely false criminal accusations against accusations against” Defendant that were “outright fabrications.”
- “Attempt[ed] to harass and intimidate” Defendant “and one of [his] witnesses.”

32. Defendant made these statements in his sham complaint that he filed in the Southern District of New York.

33. Additionally, Defendant made these statements to his friends, acquaintances and family members. Defendant repeated these statements in press releases that he caused to be issued to the public in connection with his smear campaign against Former Judge Napolitano.

34. In September of 2020, Defendant made the following statements, through his counsel and agents, to members of the press and the public:

“Judge Napolitano perverted the enormous judicial power that we gave him to uphold the law, when he used his judicial authority to sexually assault Mr. Corbishley. Further, Napolitano’s recent use of his judicial power and influence to intimidate Mr. Corbishley into silence by fabricating criminal charges against him, reveal nothing has changed. Judge Napolitano will not hesitate to use his power and influence to intimidate people he perceives as powerless when it satisfies his personal agenda.”

“For over 30 years, [Defendant] has suffered tremendous physical and emotional distress because of Judge Napolitano’s abhorrent actions.”

35. In various communications throughout 2020 with the media, friends, and family members, Defendant falsely alleged, in words or in substance, that Former Judge Napolitano had:

- “fabricated false charges” against Defendant.
- “sexually assaulted and battered” him.
- “orchestrated and carried out an unlawful scheme with his former defense counsel to exchange clemency for sexual favors.”
- “intentionally caused him to suffer severe pain and emotional distress.”
- “forcibly sodomized [Defendant].”

36. All of these statements are completely false and without merit.

37. Defendant never had any ex parte meeting with Former Judge Napolitano, Former Judge Napolitano never sexually assaulted him, and Former Judge Napolitano never conspired with Defendant’s criminal defense counsel. Defendant was not even a minor when the alleged events occurred, but rather a twenty (20) year-old man. That Defendant would attempt to associate his fabricated story of alleged abuse of a career criminal with child victimization is an unconscionable affront to real victims of such acts.

38. Former Judge Napolitano never made false accusations against Defendant, and he never intimidated, harassed, or otherwise acted improperly towards anyone.

39. At all times relevant, Defendant knew that these defamatory statements were completely false and baseless. Still, Defendant published the statements with actual malice and with the specific intent to harass Former Judge Napolitano, to pressure him into paying for the made-up claims, and to subvert this legal process.

40. Defendant has published these defamatory statements to multiple parties knowing that they would damage Former Judge Napolitano’s reputation and professional standing.

41. These defamatory statements have permanently maligned Former Judge Napolitano’s formerly pristine reputation—which he has spent decades building—as a highly regarded lawyer and respected jurist.

42. These statements are defamatory per se because they falsely accuse Former Judge Napolitano of corruption in the performance of his public duties as a Superior Court Judge. Further, they falsely state that Former Judge Napolitano has committed criminal misconduct, and they affect him in his business, trade, and profession.

43. Defendant has no applicable privilege or legal authorization to make these false and defamatory statements, or if he did, he abused it.

44. Defendant made these false and defamatory statements intentionally, willfully, maliciously, and in conscious disregard of Former Judge Napolitano's rights and reputation and of the truth.

45. Defendant acted with actual malice, showing intentional and reckless disregard for the falsity of his statements about Former Judge Napolitano. Defendant made his defamatory accusations with the intent to harm, and out of hostility toward, Former Judge Napolitano.

46. As a direct and foreseeable result of Defendant's false and defamatory statements, Former Judge Napolitano's professional standing in relation to his business and trade has been substantially impugned.

47. As a direct and foreseeable result of Defendant's defamatory statements, Former Judge Napolitano's relationships with community members, peers, acquaintances, coworkers, readers, and friends have been damaged and destroyed.

48. As a direct and foreseeable result of Defendant's defamatory statements, Former Judge Napolitano has been exposed to public hatred, contempt, and ridicule.

49. As a direct and foreseeable result of Defendant's false and defamatory statements, Former Judge Napolitano has been forced to make substantial expenditures of money to remedy the defamation and suffered other economic and special damages.

50. In view of the foregoing, Former Judge Napolitano is entitled to actual, presumed, punitive, and other damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

DEFENDANT'S CONDUCT WARRANTS PUNITIVE DAMAGES

51. Former Judge Napolitano repeats and realleges each of the foregoing paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

52. Defendant's conduct warrants the imposition of punitive damages. The factors justifying punitive damages include, at a minimum, the following:

- a. Defendant ignored information available to him that rebutted his false statements;
- b. Defendant acted with knowledge that his statements were false;
- c. Defendant deliberately published, and caused others to publish, statements they he knew to be false because Defendant wanted to discredit Former Judge Napolitano and extort him for a financial payout;
- d. Defendant knew that publishing such incendiary claims would have a damaging impact on Former Judge Napolitano; and
- e. Even after Former Judge Napolitano directed Defendant to indisputable evidence showing that Defendant's statements are false, Defendant refused to retract his false statements.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court enter an award in Former Judge Napolitano's favor, and against Defendant, as follows:

- (1) awarding Former Judge Napolitano compensatory damages in an amount to be determined;
- (2) awarding Former Judge Napolitano punitive damages in an amount to be determined;
- (3) awarding Former Judge Napolitano all expenses and costs, including attorneys' fees; and
- (4) such other and further relief as the Court deems appropriate.

Re: Charles Corbishley v. Andrew Napolitano

Dear Mr. Napolitano,

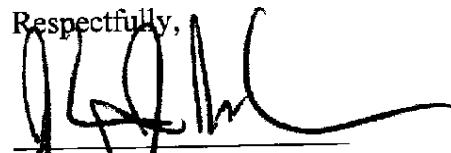

Please be advised that Mr. Charles Corbishley has retained our law firm to file a lawsuit against you. This lawsuit arises from your sexual assault of Mr. Corbishley as a teenager while you were presiding over his criminal case in Hackensack, New Jersey. These allegations are set forth in detail in the annexed Complaint, which we intend to file on December 9, 2019.

This letter shall serve as a formal demand to compensate Mr. Corbishley for all of his damages, including but not limited to, damages for his sexual assault, severe emotional distress, and humiliation, as well as punitive damages and attorneys' fees. If you are interested in resolving this matter in an expedient and confidential manner, either directly or through a representative, please contact us upon receipt. If we do not receive a response within seven days of receipt of this letter, we will assume that there is no interest in resolving this matter. We will then take all steps necessary on behalf of our client to swiftly adjudicate this case in a court of appropriate jurisdiction, which will naturally make this a matter of public record.

Please preserve any and all documents, including, but not limited to, all complaints of, sexual abuse, harassment, and any records pertaining to the Corbishley criminal matter. Additionally, please preserve all documents, contracts, reports, notes, memoranda, bills, receipts, and e-mail correspondence relating to Mr. Corbishley, whether or not pertinent and/or material to the aforementioned claims, or any potential claims that she may have.

Should you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.

Respectfully,

John J. Meehan

SUPERIOR COURT OF NEW JERSEY
BERGEN COUNTY

-----X
CHARLES CORBISHLEY,

Plaintiff,

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

-against-

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

ANDREW NAPOLITANO,

Defendant.

-----X

Plaintiff CHARLES CORBISHLEY, by his attorney JOSEPH & NORINSBERG, LLC, bring this action against defendant ANDREW NAPOLITANO ("Napolitano" or "Defendant"), alleging, on personal knowledge as to him and on information and belief as to all other matters, as follows:

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff demands a trial by jury on all issues so triable.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has personal jurisdiction over the Defendant in that at the date of the incident, defendant resided in the State of New Jersey.
2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action because the amount of damages Plaintiff seeks exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.
3. Venue for this action is proper in the County of Bergen, pursuant to R. 4:3-2, in that venue is properly laid in the county in which the cause of action arose.

CHILD VICTIMS ACT

4. Each of Plaintiff's causes of action is timely pursuant to the Child Victims Act that was enacted on May 13, 2019, and went into effect on December 1, 2019. Plaintiff alleges that the Defendant committed intentional or negligent acts or omissions which resulted in Plaintiff suffering physical, psychological or other injuries or conditions as a direct and proximate result of conduct which constitutes a sexual offense committed against his person, as defined in Section 1 of P.L. 1992, c. 109, as amended on May 13, 2019. This action, moreover, has not been filed until the effective date of December 1, 2019.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff CHARLES CORBISHLEY is an individual currently residing in Little River, South Carolina.

6. At all relevant times, plaintiff was a teenage boy and a resident of Hackensack, in the County of Bergen.

7. Defendant ANDREW NAPOLITANO is an attorney duly licensed to practice law in the State of New Jersey, and who was, at all relevant times, a New Jersey Superior Court Justice.

8. At all relevant times, Defendant NAPOLITANO was the presiding Justice on a pending criminal action against plaintiff CHARLES CORBISHLEY.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

9. Plaintiff CHARLES CORBISHLEY had a difficult family life, and was in and out of trouble with the law as a teenager.

10. During the times relevant to the allegations set forth herein, Defendant NAPOLITANO presided over plaintiff's criminal charges stemming from a violation of probation.

11. Plaintiff was on probation for a juvenile arson charge.

12. Plaintiff violated his probation and was arrested on another arson charge.

13. Thereafter, plaintiff retained the services of Robert A. Hollis, Esq., a criminal defense attorney.

14. Shortly after retaining the services of Mr. Hollis, Mr. Corbishley's case was transferred to defendant ANDREW NAPOLITANO's court.

15. Through his position as a New Jersey Superior Court Justice, defendant NAPOLITANO was put in direct access to Plaintiff CHARLES CORBISHLEY.

16. Mr. Hollis used his position as plaintiff's criminal defense attorney to arrange for plaintiff CHARLES CORBISHLEY to have a private, ex parte, meeting with defendant ANDREW NAPOLITANO at the Napolitano residence.

17. Under the direction and advice of his attorney, Mr. Corbishley went to defendant ANDREW NAPOLITANO's house, located in Hackensack, NJ.

18. Mr. Corbishley was instructed to bring a snow-shovel, as well as a Christmas card for defendant NAPOLITANO.

19. Mr. Corbishley complied with his attorney's request, and went to defendant's home.

20. Upon arrival at the residence, Mr. Corbishley rang the doorbell, and defendant answered the door. Defendant NAPOLITANO instructed plaintiff to go out back and begin to shovel the driveway. Plaintiff complied.

21. Thereafter, defendant NAPOLITANO came outside, dressed only in a trench coat.

22. Defendant NAPOLITANO then proceeded to make small talk with plaintiff, asking about his family life, and the family-owned pharmacy in town, Mira Pharmacy.

23. Defendant NAPOLITANO then approached plaintiff, and stated "you know, you could be going away for a long time."

24. As defendant was speaking to plaintiff, he proceeded to place his hands on plaintiff's shoulders, and forced plaintiff to his knees. As he pushed down toward the ground, defendant stated "you should be a good boy."

25. Thereafter, defendant NAPOLITANO pulled his penis out.

26. Plaintiff was forced to perform fellatio on the Hon. Andrew Napolitano, the presiding Justice on his criminal case.

27. As defendant began to ejaculate into plaintiff's mouth, plaintiff took off crying and ran away.

28. Thereafter, in exchange for plaintiff's "services" to Judge Napolitano, plaintiff received a significantly reduced sentence from the Court for the violation of his probation with a second arson charge: more probation.

29. Several years later, Mr. Corbishley again violated his probation, this time for narcotics and possession of a weapon.

30. Plaintiff pled guilty to these charges and, shockingly, defendant NAPOLITANO simply released plaintiff, claiming that "The Court finds that the defendant has been burdened with probation long enough given the nature of the original offense, and that further probation would be fruitless and frustrative for both the defendant and probation department."

31. Defendant NAPOLITANO'S conduct constitutes Sexual Assault under 2C:14-2 (C)(2) since "[t]he victim [was] on probation or parole... and the actor has supervisory or disciplinary power over the victim by virtue of the actor's legal, professional or occupational status."

32. As a matter of law, it was impossible for Plaintiff CHARLES CORBISHLEY to be a "willing partner" in any type of sexual encounter with NAPOLITANO.

33. As a matter of law, it was impossible for Plaintiff CHARLES CORBISHLEY to have "consented" to any sexual activities with NAPOLITANO.

34. As a direct result of Defendant's conduct described herein, Plaintiff suffered and will continue to suffer great pain of mind and body, severe and permanent emotional distress, and physical manifestations of emotional distress. Plaintiff was prevented from obtaining the full enjoyment of life; has incurred and will continue to incur expenses for medical and psychological treatment, therapy, and counseling; and has incurred and will continue to incur loss of income and/or loss of earning capacity.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
SEXUAL ASSAULT

35. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth above as if fully set forth herein.

36. Defendant ANDREW NAPOLITANO did sexually assault, sexually abuse, and/or have sexual contact with Plaintiff in violation of the laws of the State of New Jersey.

37. By sexually assaulting, sexually abusing, and/or having sexual contact with Plaintiff, Defendant ANDREW NAPOLITANO placed Plaintiff in imminent and reasonable apprehension of harmful and offensive contact.

38. By sexually assaulting, sexually abusing, and/or having sexual contact with Plaintiff, Defendant ANDREW NAPOLITANO acted so as to cause repeated unjustified, harmful and offensive physical contact with Plaintiff.

39. As a direct result of Defendants' conduct Plaintiff has suffered the injuries and damages described herein.

40. By reason of the foregoing, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for compensatory damages and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
ASSAULT

41. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth above as if fully set forth herein.

42. Defendant's aforementioned actions placed plaintiff CHARLES CORBISHLEY in apprehension of imminent harmful and offensive bodily contact.

43. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff CHARLES CORBISHLEY sustained, inter alia, assault, battery, severe emotional distress, embarrassment, humiliation, physical pain and mental anguish, together with shock, fright, and apprehension.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
BATTERY

44. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth above as if fully set forth herein.

45. Defendant ANDREW NAPOLITANO touched plaintiff in a harmful and offensive manner.

46. Defendant did so without privilege or consent from plaintiff CHARLES CORBISHLEY.

47. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff CHARLES CORBISHLEY sustained, inter alia, assault, battery, severe emotional distress, embarrassment, humiliation, physical pain and mental anguish, together with shock, fright, and apprehension.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

48. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth above as if fully set forth herein.

49. The aforementioned conduct was extreme and outrageous, and exceeded all reasonable bounds of decency.

50. The aforementioned conduct was intentional and done for the sole purpose of causing severe emotional distress to plaintiff.

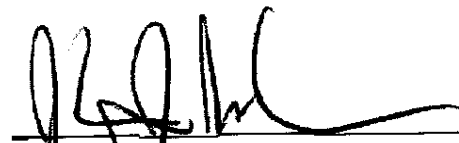

51. As a result of the aforementioned conduct, plaintiff CHARLES CORBISHLEY suffered severe emotional distress, physical and mental injury, together with embarrassment, humiliation, shock, and fright.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff CHARLES CORBISHLEY hereby demands judgment against the Defendant on each cause of action as follows:

- A. Awarding compensatory damages in an amount to be proven at trial, but, in any event, in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction over this matter;
- B. Awarding punitive damages to the extent permitted by law;
- C. Awarding costs and fees of this action, including attorneys' fees to the extent permitted by law;

Re: Extortion of Judge Andrew Napolitano

Dear Ms. Joseph and Messrs. Norinsberg and Meehan:

I am lead counsel to Judge Andrew Napolitano. Judge Napolitano has retained my firm (together with our co-counsel at Cole Schotz, P.C.) to address – and pursue all available claims and remedies regarding – the demonstrably false and legally meritless claims you have threatened to file and publicize on behalf of Charles Corbishley.

Judge Napolitano will not be extorted. He will not pay Corbishley or your firm any amount of money, under any circumstance. The meeting with your firm tentatively scheduled for 6:00 p.m. tonight is canceled. We have reported this unlawful extortion attempt to federal law enforcement officials for investigation. Judge Napolitano has absolutely nothing to hide and will comply fully with law enforcement's investigation of these matters.

Judge Napolitano denies – in the strongest possible terms – ever having had a “private, ex parte” meeting with Corbishley, engaging in any sort of sexual contact with Corbishley, or imposing a lesser sentence (or providing any other consideration) in exchange for any “services.” These false allegations accuse Judge Napolitano, a highly regarded lawyer and jurist with an unblemished reputation, of committing a sexual assault, battery, and corruption in the performance of his public duties as a Superior Court judge. These allegations are demonstrably false and defamatory per se, and we demand that you immediately withdraw the extortionate threat to file and publicize these false accusations that have no basis in reality.

Should your firm and Corbishley disregard the information in this letter and persist in your threat to file and publicize these allegations, Judge Napolitano is prepared to pursue all applicable claims and remedies against your client and your law firm to the fullest extent permitted under the law and applicable canons of professional ethics. Those remedies include, without limitation, immediately seeking sanctions against Corbishley, your law firm, and Mr. Meehan individually, as the signatory of the verified complaint and an attorney not licensed to practice law in the State of New Jersey in violation of RPC 5.5. Those remedies also will include the initiation of defamation counterclaims against Corbishley and your firm arising from the filing of a “sham” pleading for the sole and improper purpose of damaging Judge Napolitano’s reputation. The law offers no protection for “sham” litigation pleadings.

New Jersey’s frivolous litigation statute, N.J.S.A. 2A:15-59-1 requires the imposition of sanctions when: (i) litigation is “commenced, used or continued in bad faith solely for the purpose of harassment, delay or malicious injury,” or (ii) the litigant “knew, or should have known, that the complaint . . . was without any reasonable basis in law or equity and could not be supported by a good faith argument for an extension, modification or reversal of existing law.” Both Rule 1:4-8 and the federal analog Fed. R. Civ. P. 11 impose an obligation on counsel and their clients, providing that any attorney who signs a pleading is certifying, to the best of his knowledge and after conducting a diligent inquiry, that the factual allegations contained therein are supported by credible evidence and that the pleading is not brought for an improper purpose.¹

The lawsuit you are threatening to file is fatally flawed — both factually and legally — for multiple independent reasons:

The allegations in your verified complaint are pure fiction. Judge Napolitano categorically denies, in the strongest possible terms, each and every fact alleged in the complaint regarding Corbishley’s purported claims for sexual assault, assault, battery, and intentional infliction of emotional distress. When Judge Napolitano’s counsel asked you to identify any witnesses, evidence, or other proof that any of these things had ever occurred, the only “evidence” your firm was able to identify were public records demonstrating that Corbishley was, in fact, a career criminal in New Jersey with multiple criminal convictions.

Even the few allegations that do appear in the complaint demonstrate that the allegations and claims are both factually and legally meritless.

Corbishley’s entire story is rooted in the assertion that his now-deceased criminal defense attorney instructed him to shovel snow from Judge Napolitano’s driveway. (Comp. ¶¶ 17-20.)

¹ Bensalem Twp. v. Int’l Surplus Lines Ins. Co., 38 F.3d 1303, 1314 (3d Cir. 1994) (“[Fed. R. Civ. P. 11] imposes an affirmative duty on the parties to conduct a reasonable inquiry into the applicable law and facts prior to filing. An inquiry is considered reasonable under the circumstances if it provides the party with “an ‘objective knowledge or belief at the time of the filing of a challenged paper’ that the claim was well-grounded in law and fact.”) (citations omitted).

Although you have failed to identify a specific date for this fictional incident, the complaint alleges that it took place sometime after Corbishley pled guilty on November 16, 1988, but before he was sentenced in January 1989.² According to the verified complaint, Corbishley supposedly went to Judge Napolitano's "house" in Hackensack New Jersey and was instructed to go "out back" and "begin to shovel the driveway." (Comp. ¶¶ 17, 20.)

These allegations are demonstrably false. At the time alleged in the complaint (November 1988 - January 1989), Judge Napolitano lived on the 26th floor of this condominium building:

Thus, it is readily apparent that there was no "house," no "driveway" that could have been shoveled, and no "out back" where the alleged assault supposedly could have occurred. These facts, alone, conclusively demonstrate that Corbishley's claims are completely fabricated. They also demonstrate that Corbishley has either lied to your firm about his supposed claims or, at a minimum, that your firm has failed to adequately investigate the factual and legal basis for the threatened claim.

Your verified complaint also falsely claims that Corbishley was a "teenage boy" when the fabricated assault supposedly took place, presumably to resuscitate your 30-year-old claims that fall far outside of New Jersey's statute of limitations. But, according to the very same criminal court records you provided, Corbishley was 20 years old during the winter of 1988-1989. This is yet another demonstrably false allegation confirming that you and your firm have not conducted a proper investigation prior to threatening this extortionate action.

Moreover, Judge Napolitano did not, as falsely claimed in the verified complaint, order "a significantly reduced sentence" in exchange for the non-existent sexual favors or for any other reason. (Complaint ¶ 28.) Indeed, the opposite is true, and the very same criminal records you provided also reject this assertion. Those records demonstrate that after Corbishley entered into a plea deal with the prosecutor's office – pleading guilty to a crime in the fourth degree – Judge Napolitano sentenced Corbishley to five years of probation, the maximum term of probation allowed by law pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:45-2. Once again, the incontrovertible, documented facts completely reject the premise of your flawed lawsuit.

² Corbishley pled guilty to a lesser charge of Failure to Report a Dangerous Fire on November 16, 1988 and was sentenced by Judge Napolitano on January 27, 1989. Corbishley's criminal record is attached as Exhibit A.

The complaint also contains a prominent reference to an inapplicable New York Statute — the “Child Victims Act” — in order to exacerbate the false impression that Corbishley was a minor when these events supposedly occurred. As you know, that is the name of a recently enacted New York statute with absolutely no bearing on this litigation. Nevertheless, in an effort to further sensationalize your complaint and misrepresent the facts, you prominently suggest that Corbishley’s claims are being brought pursuant to this law. As you also know, the New Jersey bill — P.L.2019 c. 120 — relevant to your complaint does not have any such title. Your reference to the New York statute is misleading, impertinent, grossly inappropriate, and solely intended to portray Judge Napolitano, and the allegations against him, in a false light to draw headlines, and enhanced embarrassment, to Judge Napolitano where none are justified.

There can be no doubt that the complaint is factually baseless and legally meritless. Your firm sent the verified complaint for the sole and improper purpose of extorting, threatening, defaming, harassing, and embarrassing Judge Napolitano. We demand that you withdraw the threat immediately.

This is not intended to be a complete statement of Judge Napolitano’s rights, remedies, claims and causes of action, all of which are expressly reserved.

Very truly yours,

Thomas A. Clare, P.C.

STATEMENT OF REASONS

Aggravating Factors: 3, 6, 9 & 11
Def. has several prior records consisting of 5 arrests and 3 convictions. One conviction has been pending appeal since 3/27/93.
Risk that def. will commit another offense.
Need to deter def. and others from committing the same offense in future.
Imposition of a fine, penalty or restitution without also imposing a term of imprisonment would be perceived by the def. or others merely as a cost of doing business or as an acceptable contingent business or operating expense associated with the initial decision to resort to unlawful practices.

Mitigating Factor:

Def's youth, might in part, have been a factor in his use of poor judgement.

BERGEN COUNTY - LAW DIVISION

NOVEMBER

TERM A.D. 1992

SECOND

STATED SESSION

THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY :

-vs- :

CHARLES CORBISHLEY :

DEFENDANT :

Indictment No.

The Grand Jurors of the State of New Jersey, for the County of Bergen, upon their oaths present as a

FIRST COUNT

that [REDACTED] and CHARLES CORBISHLEY, on or about July 12, 1992, in the Township of Teaneck, in the County of Bergen aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, did unlawfully enter the structure of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED], with the purpose to commit an offense therein; contrary to the provisions of NJS 2C:18-2, and against the peace of this State, the Government and dignity of the same.

SECOND COUNT

AND the Grand Jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do further PRESENT that [REDACTED] and CHARLES CORBISHLEY, on or about July 12, 1992, in the Township of Teaneck, in the County of Bergen aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, did unlawfully take or exercise unlawful control over movable property of, or in the custody and control of [REDACTED], with a value in excess of $500.00 with purpose to deprive the owner thereof; contrary to the provisions of NJS 2C:20-3, and against the peace of this State, the Government and dignity of the same.

THIRD COUNT

AND the Grand Jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do further PRESENT that [REDACTED], on or about July 12, 1992, in the Township of Teaneck, in the County of Bergen aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, did purposely prevent a law enforcement officer, to wit: [REDACTED] of the Bergen County Police Department from effecting a lawful arrest by using or threatening to use physical force or violence against [REDACTED], or by using any other means to create a substantial risk of causing physical injury to [REDACTED] or another; contrary to the provisions of NJS 2C:29-2(a), and against the peace of this State, the Government and dignity of the same.

SUPERIOR COURT OF NEW JERSEY

BERGEN COUNTY - LAW DIVISION

NOVEMBER

TERM A.D. 1995

SECOND

STATED SESSION

THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY :

-vs- :

CHARLES CORBISHLEY :

DEFENDANT :

Indictment No.

S-1393.95

95-11-1393-2

The Grand Jurors of the State of New Jersey, for the County of Bergen, upon their oaths present as a

FIRST COUNT
(First Degree)

that CHARLES CORBISHLEY, on or about February 3, 1995, in the City of Hackensack, in the County of Bergen aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, did knowingly or purposely possess a controlled dangerous substance, or its analog, namely, COCAINE, a derivative of coca leaves, in a quantity of five ounces or more, including any adulterants or dilutants, with the intent to distribute the same; contrary to the provisions of NJS 2C:35-5a(1) and NJS 2C:35-5b(1) and against the peace of this State, the Government and dignity of the same.

SECOND COUNT
(Third Degree)

AND the Grand Jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do further PRESENT that CHARLES CORBISHLEY, on or about February

3, 1995, in the City of Hackensack, in the County of Bergen aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, did violate NJS 2C:35-5a by knowingly or purposely possessing a controlled dangerous substance, namely, COCAINE or its analog, with the intent to distribute same, and did so while on school property used for school purposes which is owned by or leased to an elementary or secondary school or school board, or while within 1,000 feet of any school property or school bus, or while on any school bus, specifically, Fairmount School, Fairmount and Grand Avenues; contrary to the provisions of NJS 2C:35-7, and against the peace of this State, the Government and dignity of the same.

THIRD COUNT
(Third Degree)

AND the Grand Jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do further PRESENT that CHARLES CORBISHLEY, on or about February 3, 1995, in the City of Hackensack, in the County of Bergen aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, did knowingly or purposely possess a controlled dangerous substance, or its analog, namely, COCAINE; contrary to the provisions of NJS 2C:35-10a(1), and against the peace of this State, the Government and dignity of the same.

FOURTH COUNT
(Fourth Degree)

AND the Grand Jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do further PRESENT that CHARLES CORBISHLEY, on or about February 3, 1995, in the City of Hackensack, in the County of Bergen aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, did possess a certain weapon, to wit: an imitation firearm under circumstances that would lead an observer to reasonably believe that it was possessed for an unlawful purpose; contrary to the provision NJS 2C:39-4e, and against the peace of this State, the Government and dignity of the same.

FIFTH COUNT
(Fourth Degree)

AND the Grand Jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do further PRESENT that CHARLES CORBISHLEY, on or about February 3, 1995, in the City of Hackensack, in the County of Bergen aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, did purposely prevent a law enforcement officer, to wit: [REDACTED] of the Hackensack Police Department from effecting a lawful arrest by using or threatening to use physical force or violence against [REDACTED], or by using any other means to create a substantial risk of causing physical injury to [REDACTED] or another; contrary to the provisions of NJS 2C:29-2a, and against the peace of this State, the Government and dignity of the same.

SIXTH COUNT
(Fourth Degree)

AND the Grand Jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do further PRESENT that CHARLES CORBISHLEY, on or about February 3, 1995, in the City of Hackensack, in the County of Bergen aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, did take or obtain a Bell Atlantic IQ credit card in the name of [REDACTED], and/or AT & T calling card, in the name of [REDACTED], and/or Discover Credit card, in the name of [REDACTED], and/or

American Express Corporate card, in the name of [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and/or Macy's and Sears credit cards, in the name of [REDACTED] and/or Citibank Visa, in the name of [REDACTED], without the cardholder's consent or, with knowledge that they had been so taken, did receive the credit cards with intent to use them or to sell them or to transfer them to a person other than the issuer or the cardholder; contrary to the provisions of NJS 2C:21-6c, and against the peace of this State, the Government and dignity of the same.
